

Figure 10: Average aquifer pressure values 2.4 hours after injection started. (The case numbers refer to the different petrophysical realizations; in addition, each realization can have three different degrees of faulting. See Table 3.)